

MUE 220b : MUSIC EDUCATION FORUM

Advisor approval required. This course is for music education majors to gain additional music education experiences through lectures, discussions, interactions, observations, guest speakers, and teaching experiences. This course is available if the student is short on practicum experience hours and must be taken in final semester before the student teaching experience. This course may be taken only once. Pass/fail grading Offered Fall and Spring Terms.

1.000

Music Education

Major credit.