

ATH 263 : Jainism

This course approaches the minority Indian religion of Jainism through anthropological textual, and historical information concerning ethics, narratives, festivals, rituals, worldview, and other various roles and practices of men and women in different sects and subsects. Non-European/non-Anglophone. Meets GEP social science requirement/Women's Studies. Cross-listed with REL 263.

3.000

GEP, Elective credit.