

SSS 101 : STUDENT SUCCESS SEMINAR

This course is designed to help students in their adjustment to college life. The information and experiences provided will aid the student in developing a better understanding of academic expectations associated with higher education and will introduce the student to specific skills that promote success at the University level. The course will also provide a venue for discussion and examination of common challenges during a student's first year in college.

1.000