

American Sign Language (ASL) Minor

Minor

This minor provides students with a foundation in ASL along with opportunities to understand topics related to Deaf History and Culture. Students also have opportunities throughout all of the courses to interact with the local Deaf Community (at the South Carolina School for the Deaf and the Blind or in the community setting). The skills learned in this minor could benefit students who plan to work with members of the Deaf Community in a business, vocation, or residential school setting.

A Minor in American Sign Language consists of 18 credit hours:
