

ART 112 : 3-D DESIGN

Prerequisite for all studio and design courses. An introductory course that investigates the handling of real space through the study of form, structure, texture, and surface. Historical and contemporary issues are explored in various media.

Lab fee.

Major, Minor credit.

3.000

Department of Art, Design, and Letters