

BIO 191 : INTRODUCTION TO BIOLOGICAL SCIENCE II

This is a general introduction to biology for all students, non-majors and potential majors. It serves as a natural science general education class. The course covers concepts and principles in the areas of genetics (heredity and molecular biology), cell structure and function (Metabolism), and other areas.

Lab Fee.

4.000

BIO190 or AP Biology credit.

Biology

Major, Minor, Elective credit.