

Women's Studies Minor

Minor

- EMILY HARBIN, director

The women's studies minor will enhance Converse students' ability to understand themselves and their place in the global community by encouraging them to analyze the assumptions that are an essential part of language and cultural symbols. This program will foster awareness of women's roles and the image of women in various cultures.

The minor consists of 18 credit hours of coursework. WST 200 and five elective courses are required.

Courses in art, English, French, Spanish, history, philosophy, politics and religion that are designated as women's studies will be accepted for GEP humanities credit.
