

MTY 461 : MUSIC THERAPY IN COMMUNITY SETTINGS

This senior level music therapy course is designed to develop AMTA professional competencies relevant to working with clients of all ages in community settings. The course addresses music therapy clinical approaches and perspectives as well as the person of the therapist. Music therapy methods requiring clinical experience or education beyond the entry-level competencies will also be introduced. Working with clients from historically marginalized cultures and disability models will also be covered.

2.000

or by permission of the instructor

Music Therapy

MTY 363

Major