

BIO 491 : SENIOR SEMINAR

Capstone course for Biology major. Directed reading, study, and discussion designed to reemphasize the fundamental principles of biology, to correlate and summarize the coursework of the major program and related fields, to introduce new areas and ideas, and to provide advanced experience in literature review, writing and oral presentation. Conferences as needed. Offered Fall Term. Writing intensive and capstone.

3.000

BIO 480 or consent of the instructor.

Biology

Major credit. Research experience

Required of all biology majors.