

Personal Property

The employee should take necessary precautions to protect your personal items in your building and in your car or University owned or leased vehicles against possible pilferage. The University does not accept responsibility for losses of personal items.