

Reporting Changes in Personal Information

All employees are expected to immediately report any changes in the following personal information to the Human Resources Department or update in the Human Resource Information System (HRIS) iSolved: name or beneficiary designation, home address, or phone information tax withholding allowances, and emergency contact information.