

CON 301 : GRANT WRITING

Introduction to the grant writing process. Students will learn the basics of grant writing, including needs assessment, identifying potential funding sources, creating goals, and identifying assessment plans. A large group project will involve the entire class in the creation of a significant grant proposal on behalf of a local community service or government agency.

3.000

Major; Writing Intensive