DSC 499 : DATA SCIENCE CAPSTONE

This course allows students to complete research on a data science topic or project. The student will also present their work and results through a visual presentation and through a professionally written document. Offered every year. Capstone.
1.000
School of Business and Data Science