

ECN 300 : DESCRIPTIVE AND INFERENTIAL STATISTICS

This course examines some of the methods of describing and presenting both quantitative and qualitative data. Probability techniques and principles are studied as these are necessary for conducting and interpreting inferential statistical tests and techniques. Meets Quantitative GEP requirement.

4.000

Economics

Major, Minor credit.