

ECN 380 : HEALTHCARE ECONOMICS AND POLICY

Healthcare economics and policy applies microeconomic principles to healthcare delivery and healthcare policies. The course explores the changing nature of healthcare, social and political issues, and the future of healthcare delivery and finance under the Affordable Care Act. This course will also compare and contrast the United States and its lifestyle, cultural and economic characteristics to those of other developed countries to help students challenge their assumptions about healthcare.

3.000

Economics

ECN 201

Major, Minor, Elective credit.