

ACC 375 : FINANCIAL STATEMENT ANALYSIS

This course will help students develop the skills necessary to analyze and interpret financial statements of corporations. Students will explore financial reporting topics introduced in ACC 211. Additional topics will include return on invested capital, profitability and investment analysis. This analysis viewpoint is that of the user of financial statements.

4.000

Accounting

ACC 211

ACC 212

Major, Minor, Elective credit.