

SOC 302 : SOCIAL STRATIFICATION

A study of institutionalized patterns of economic, political, social, and prestige differentiation and the importance of class or stratum placement in determining opportunities, style of life, and patterns of interaction.

3.000

Sociology

GEP, Elective credit.