

ENG 102 : INTRODUCTION TO LITERARY GENRES

Readings in the major literary genres— poetry, fiction and drama. This course introduces critical concepts and vocabulary that enable students to analyze literature seriously and to create well-organized essays demonstrating their own competence in literary interpretation. Students will receive level-appropriate instruction in research.

3.000

English

GEP credit.