

Credit by Examination

Converse gives credit for the nationally standardized Advanced Placement (AP) Tests of the University Entrance Examination Board. Credit will usually be given for a score of 3 or better on these tests. For specific information about the relationship of these tests to required courses, contact the Associate Provost for Student Success.

In addition, Converse recognizes the International Baccalaureate (IB) program and awards credit to students who score a 4 or above on any General Level Examination. University-Level Examination Program (CLEP) credit will usually be awarded with a score of 50 or better on these tests. For specific information about the relationship of these tests to required courses you should consult the Senior Associate Provost for Student Success.
