

CRW 498 : BFA SENIOR SEMINAR

The seminar offers the opportunity to develop a book length collection of poetry (35-45 pages) or prose (40-50 pages) along with a critical introduction to the work that details how the student author's writing fits into the contemporary literature scene. In addition, the student creates a reading list developed in consultation with the project director and completes a final oral defense of the senior project. Projects directed by faculty sponsors. Capstone. Offered in the Spring Term of the senior year. 3.000

Creative Writing

Required of all BFA creative and professional writing majors.