

PHI 220 : EARLY MODERN PHILOSOPHY

This course examines key philosophical figures, texts and debates from the European Enlightenment. Specific figures may include Hobbes, Descartes, Locke, Berkeley, Spinoza, Hume and Kant and special attention may be devoted to issues central to the period, such as the rise of mechanistic science and the relationship between reason and emotion.

3.000

Philosophy

GEP, Major, Minor, Elective credit.