

PHI 300 : METAPHYSICS

Metaphysics refers to the study of the nature of existence and reality. Specific topics that may be addressed include, but are not limited to, the relationship between mind and body, the persistence of the self throughout time, the nature of change and causation, the existence of supernatural entities, the meaning of “truth”, and the distinction between facts and values.

3.000

Philosophy

GEP, Major, Minor, Elective credit.