

PHI 315 : AESTHETICS

A philosophical study of the nature of beauty, art, and artistic experience. Special attention may also be devoted to the social, political, and economic contexts of art and aesthetic experience, various modes of interpreting the “meaning” of artworks, and the relationships between different artistic media.

Writing Intensive.

3.000

Philosophy

GEP, Major, Minor, Elective credit.