

REL 310 : INTERFAITH COOPERATION

This course will explore the knowledge and skills needed to foster interfaith literacy and cooperation. Interfaith literacy is approached as an essential characteristic of leadership in a religiously diverse world. Interfaith cooperation is approached through service-learning beyond the classroom by planning an interfaith event for the Converse community. Interfaith Studies.

3.000

Religion

Major, Minor, Elective credit