

EDU 314 : SCIENCE FOR THE CHILD

This course is designed to familiarize students with science content in life sciences, physical sciences, and earth/space sciences appropriate for the elementary child (grades 2-6), to develop pedagogical skills in science, and to build positive attitudes toward science and science instruction. Candidates are provided with hands-on science experiences, preparation for the Praxis II exam, and field experiences.
3.000

Education

Major credit.