

SED 392 : AMERICAN SIGN LANGUAGE IV

This course focuses on an advanced level of the development of receptive and expressive skills, as well as the affective parameters of American Sign Language. There is an emphasis on conversational competence using conceptual signs and semantic appropriateness. This course includes 5 hours of interactions with members of the Deaf Community. Offered Fall and Spring Term.

3.000

SED 391.

Special Education

Major, Elective credit.