

ART 388 : GLOBAL PERSPECTIVES IN ART EDUCATION

The purpose of this course is to examine various cultures and art from around the world and determine how to promote conceptual understanding of diversity in the K-12 classroom. Students will explore art education using a global lens, design comprehensive units and develop reflective and critical thinking skills. This course is appropriate for the following degree programs: BA Art Education, BA Early Childhood, BA Elementary Education, and BA Special Education. Benchmark II. Meets Non-European/non-anglophone and Writing Intensive Requirements. Lab fee.

3.000

Department of Art, Design, and Letters

GEP, Major, Elective credit.