

ART 307 : ART HISTORY TRAVEL

No prerequisites. This program offers the student the opportunity to travel to major art centers and critically observe and evaluate major works of art and the environments in which they are made, displayed, and sold. Additional travel costs will be incurred by the student. Typically offered during Jan Term.

3.000

Department of Art, Design, and Letters

GEP, Elective credit; Major credit if approved by the Art History program director.