

ART 150 : SCULPTURE I

An introduction to the discipline of sculpture. Study and experimentation with traditional and contemporary concepts of form. Lectures, demonstrations, and assigned studio problems familiarize the student with the properties of structure and the nature of materials and forming processes. Priority will be given to majors. Lab fee.

3.000

ART 112 or permission of instructor.

Department of Art, Design, and Letters

Major, Minor, Elective credit.