

DES 383 : CODES AND MATERIALS

Overview of building codes and regulations including their importance and impact on interior design solutions aligned with health, safety and welfare; and a range of interior materials, fabrics, textiles, and their properties, sustainable attributes, fabrication, performance, value, installation methods, and fire ratings. Lab Fee. Offered Fall Term.

3.000

Or permission of instructor.

Department of Art, Design, and Letters

DES 284

Major credit.