THR 229 : FUNDAMENTALS OF THEATRICAL DESIGN

This course explores the foundational principles and processes of design for theatrical production. Beginning with the basic elements of design, students will then explore the decision making process in scenic, lighting, costume, and sound areas with special consideration for the interrelated qualities of these elements.
3.000
Theatre
Major, Minor, Elective credit.