

MTY 151 : INTRODUCTION TO MUSIC THERAPY

This course introduces the student to the field of music therapy including a description of professional practice, and history of the profession, and surveys music therapy applications with a variety of clinical populations. The course also presents the student with experiential learning opportunities that are critical to developing clinical/self-reflective skills in the profession.

2.000

No prerequisite; open to non-majors.

Music Therapy