

MIL 301: TRAINING MANAGEMENT AND THE WARFIGHTING FUNCTIONS

This advanced course focuses on training management and the warfighting functions. It is an academically challenging course that requires cadets to study, practice, and apply the fundamentals of Training Management and Army Operations through the Warfighting functions. At the conclusion of this course, cadets will be capable of planning, preparing, and executing training for a squad conducting small unit tactics. This course requires a mandatory Leadership lab each week with peer evaluation, facilitated by Senior Cadets and supervised by Instructors. Cadets also learn how resiliency and fitness supports their development as an Army leader.
