

SED 390 : AMERICAN SIGN LANGUAGE II

This course offers a study of American Sign Language linguistics. There is a focus on general communicative competence in ASL with emphasis on both receptive and expressive signing skills. The course includes 5 hours of interactions with members of the Deaf Community. Offered Fall and Spring Term.

3.000

SED 385.

Special Education

GEP, Elective credit.