

Bachelor of Arts with a Special Education: Learning Disabilities Major

Instruction in special education, elementary education, and psychology is designed to give teacher candidates a strong background for work with learning disabilities in grades K-12. Directed student teaching is arranged in area public schools. Additional certification may be possible by completing specified courses and obtaining passing scores on the PRAXIS II examinations. Teacher candidates should verify the test code numbers of the South Carolina requirement PRAXIS requirements because the codes are subject to change. The major includes the add-on requirements for certification in elementary education.

Student Learning Outcomes

1. Candidates will provide meaningful and challenging learning experiences.
2. Candidates will use multiple methods of assessment and data sources in making educational decisions.
3. Candidates will use knowledge of general and specialized curricula to individualize learning and to select, adapt, and use a repertoire of evidence-based instructional strategies.
