

Bachelor of Fine Arts with Studio Art major

Bachelor of Fine Arts Degree Program

The Bachelor of Fine Arts degree programs are professional degrees comprised of intensive, highly structured courses of study designed to prepare students for careers in the interior design profession, as professional artists, or as preparation for graduate studies.

Studio Art

The mission of the Bachelor of Fine Arts Degree provides an exploratory opportunity for students to create with a broad base of media working toward mastery in the studio area(s) of their choice. This professional degree provides students with a studio experience that fosters the development of a personal body of work in concept, theory, and practice.

Studio Program Goals

Upon graduation, the Bachelor of Fine Arts with a studio art major will be able to:

1. Produce artwork that successfully utilizes design elements and principles and demonstrates mastery level of their chosen medium/media.
2. Communicate personal concept(s) through a written artist statement, gallery presentation and solo exhibition, and personal website.
3. Reference historic and contemporary art in relationship to their own and other artists' works.
4. Apply for career opportunities, compete in juried competitions and apply for art residencies and/or graduate programs.

Student Learning Outcomes

1. Students will be able to produce artwork that successfully utilizes design elements and principles and demonstrates mastery level of their chosen medium/media.
2. Students will be able to communicate their personal concept(s) through a written artist statement, gallery presentation and solo exhibition, and personal website.
3. Students will be able to reference historic and contemporary art in relationship to their own and other artists' works.
4. Students will be able to demonstrate the ability to apply for career opportunities, compete in juried competitions and apply for art residencies and/or graduate programs.

Bachelor of Fine Arts with a studio art major consists of 77 hours and offers a sequence of courses in painting, sculpture, printmaking, ceramics, photography, digital media and drawing, along with requirements in art history. This degree provides students with a thorough grounding in visual arts foundation principles and techniques. Provisions are made for in-depth studio explorations, for discussion and analysis of critical visual problems in a liberal arts environment, and for sustained studio work.

For continuation in the Bachelor of Fine Arts degree program in studio art students must submit a portfolio of artwork for faculty review in their junior year. Faculty recommendation is based upon student's statement of intent as well as the quality and direction of submitted artworks. Students should obtain detailed information concerning the Bachelor of Fine Arts review from the chair of the department during their sophomore year.
